COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS

Partnership formats

01

Narrated mention

A brief introduction to a brand or product in the creator's own voice, clearly identified as commercial communication. Length and placement are agreed for the individual piece.

02

Contextual integration

A segment narrated by Cosmos RoI, connected to the video's subject and clearly disclosed. The brand provides verifiable information; the script follows the channel's editorial voice.

03

Dedicated segment

A section developed from a brief, with agreed scope and messages. Length, links and any supporting elements are specified in the proposal.

04

Special production

A separately budgeted project covering research, writing, narration and editing according to agreed resources and deliverables.

> Every production is quoted for its scope. No standard rate or unlimited reuse licence is implied.

COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS

Scope, rights & conditions

Budget and scope

Each proposal includes a quote tailored to the format, estimated length, deliverables, links and production services.

Usage rights

Publication on Cosmos Rol channels does not include advertising reuse by the brand. Any reuse of the video, script, voice or likeness requires explicit permission, with media, territory and term defined.

Exclusivity

Any restriction involving competitors must specify the category, territory and period, and is assessed as part of the quote.

Revisions and schedule

The agreement sets revision rounds, their scope, approval milestones and the intended publication date. Brand fact-checking does not provide control over independent editorial conclusions.

Reporting

Metrics, sources and the reporting date are agreed in writing. Views are not unique people, and campaign results are not guaranteed.

Invoicing and cancellation

The quote specifies applicable taxes, payment method, due dates and cancellation terms reflecting work completed and resources committed.

A project-specific written agreement confirms deliverables, deadlines and financial terms before production.

COMMERCIAL PARTNERSHIPS

From the brief to publication

The brief

- Brand, product and contact person.
- Communication objective and target audience.
- Format, deliverables and verifiable messages.
- Indicative budget and publication window.
- Available assets, review requirements and embargoes.
- Requested reuse rights, exclusivity and reporting.

Advertising disclosure

Commercial partnerships are clearly disclosed to viewers and through YouTube's paid promotion tools. Integrations are produced in Cosmos Rol's own voice and style.
